

Collaboration. Not Resignation.

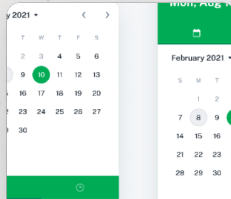

North America is experiencing attrition due to lack of employee engagement.

Studies show companies lose $500 billion in lost productivity each year.* Veriday Workplace Off the Shelf® helps employers combat this through its intuitive design, creating a successful work atmosphere where employees feel at home, so they can focus on what they do best and not worry about tricky technology. And for you, a workday without worrying about costs associated with employee turnover.

The Workplace Off the Shelf® UX reintroduces you to a better ROI.

Built with Material Design standards, the UX of the Digital Workplace OTS® portal is based on ease of use.

Digital Workplace OTS® prioritizes company information and vital apps such as calendar appointments.

Timeliness is key for productivity. Users easily access everyday communication apps like email, chat, video calls and more right from the Digital Workplace OTS® portal.

Your existing applications are welcome to be integrated into the portal, so all necessary tools are at employees' fingertips.

Today's professionals are on the move. Digital Workplace OTS® runs on desktop and mobile, so important information and communication is accessible when and where it's needed.

All of this with clean lines and pixel precision. All just like it's Off the Shelf.

Organizations with high-level engagement outperform companies with poor engagement by 202%.*

Are you empowering communication cross-functionally? Workplace Off the Shelf® gives Marketing, Human Resources, Corporate Communications and leadership teams the opportunity to communicate with their employee population in the most effective way through four key priorities:
